Dear Sirs:-

I regret very much that through an oversight the box which Mr. Saltus had had prepared for the medal commemorating King Albert's Aerial Crossing of the English Channel was not forwarded to you at the same time the medal was sent. I am mailing it today by registered post under a separate cover.

Yours very respectfully,

Assistant to the Curator.

Dear Sir:

Your letter concerning the cut threepenny interests me very much. This is the first specimen of which I have heard, much less have seen.
I do not know that these pieces were ever cut in Massachusetts. In fact, there was no need because sixpennies and threepennies were plentifully coined.

I consider your piece perfectly genuine and I agree with you that it was done in the West Indies, because trade between the New England ports and the West Indies was very extensive in Colonial days.

I beg to thank you you for calling my attention to this piece.

Very sincerely yours,

Curator
